

Welcome to My World

On these pages you will see a glimpse of my world seen through the lens of my camera. The moments, emotions and events that are shaping all our lives on a daily basis but that so often just pass us by.

Photography has given me a way to help preserve some of these moments as a part of our history and heritage in our ever-changing world. I hope you enjoy these moments. as I have.

To order a print or to book me for an event please send me an email through my contact page . This link will take you to my online gallery .
